Directions

Wormley village is situated between Witley and Chiddingfold and is surrounded by wonderful countryside ideal for walking and riding, such as the Greensand Way, a long distance footpath which runs along the ridge upon which Wormley is situated. There are far-reaching views from much of the area. There are golf courses at Milford and Chiddingfold whilst South Coast beaches are around 25 miles away. Witley Station (situated in Wormley) provides direct access into Waterloo taking approx 55 minutes, and the A3 linking the M25 and London Gatwick airports is around 3 miles from the village centre. Milford village (approx 2.5 miles from village centre) offers excellent local facilities including Secretts farm shop, Tesco Express, a chemist, off-licence and fresh fish shop. Godalming, 2 miles further on, has a picturesque and historic town centre with superb restaurants, individual shops and superstores. Guildford, with its multitude of shops, theatres, cinemas and restaurants is around 7 miles away and there are bus and train connections from Wormley to all of the above-mentioned towns and villages.
